Work is well underway to bring this landmark back to life by Friends of Waterworks, Upper Westside CID, & Berkeley Park Neighborhood

So far: Active greenspace, hammock stands, walking paths, and THE BEST panoramic views of the ATL, especially at sunset

So what's next? Check out the Upperwestside CID Masterplan, Pg. 64 (GOOGLE IT) to see the big idea!!

RETAIL FOOD MEN TO HOLD BARBECUE ON LABOR DAY

Members of the Atlanta Retail Food Dealers' association will give a barbecue and picnic at waterworks park on Labor day (Monday) in honor of Francis E. Kamper, president of the National Association of Retail Grocers. It was announced Saturday by Raymond V. Burgin, secretary of the Atlanta association.

In addition to the barbecue, there will be a baseball game, program of athletic contests and music by Hubner's band. The barbecue starts at 1 o'clock, and will be served under the direction of W. R. Echols, of Wilson & Co.

Everything will be served free, as the meats, drinks and other things are to be donated by members of the association and Atlanta wholesale dealers.

Local Event; Year: 1921

PRODUCE DEALERS WILL FEAST TODAY

Atlanta wholesale produce dealers will enjoy a barbecue and picnic at noon today at Waterworks park. A program of athletic events will be carried out, it was announced Tuesday.

Dealers, employees and other friends will take the afternoon off to enjoy this event which has become an annual affair.
